

Quiz Questions

- 1.) What are the two MAIN ideas of the article?
1. World leaders will be meeting in New York.
 2. Artists are painting pictures on New York City buildings.
 3. People in Iran do not have much freedom.
 4. Governments do not like street art.
- (A) 1 and 2
(B) 2 and 3
(C) 3 and 4
(D) 1 and 4
- 2.) Which of these is MOST important to include in a summary of the article?
- (A) Maziar Bahari appeared on "The Daily Show with John Stewart."
(B) In the Baha'i religion, people are supposed to be treated equally.
(C) Iran has put many journalists in prison.
(D) Ron English's painting says people cannot take photographs.
- 3.) Why are the artists painting on the outside of buildings in New York City?
- (A) They want to get the attention of people going to the United Nations.
(B) They know that people in New York City like having the freedom to express their feelings.
(C) They were not allowed to travel to Iran.
(D) They hope to appear on American television.
- 4.) Select the best answer choice to complete the sentence below. Atena Farghadani's 12-year sentence is an example of
- (A) what Iran does to stop free speech.
(B) what Bahai's people want their governments to do.
(C) what Bahari wrote about in a story for Newsweek.
(D) what people in America and in Iran agree on.