

Name: _____

WARM UP

Directions: Use the clues in each sentence to determine the definition of the underlined word.

1. Treating animals well is the humane thing to do.
Humane:
2. Always turning in her homework and working hard in class made the teacher have a very positive view of that student.
Positive:
3. After getting bad news about his grandfather Sean was in a very negative mood.
Negative:
4. The student was so persuasive that he convinced Ms. Snider not to give homework.
Persuasive:
5. Angry and colorful are both describing words.
Describing:

Directions: Identify the noun in the sentence below and determine whether its singular or plural.

1. The cats on that street always make a lot of noise at night.

WARM UP

Directions: Use the clues in each sentence to determine the definition of the underlined word.

1. Treating animals well is the humane thing to do.
Humane:
2. Always turning in her homework and working hard in class made the teacher have a very positive view of that student.
Positive:
3. After getting bad news about his grandfather Sean was in a very negative mood.
Negative:
4. The student was so persuasive that he convinced Ms. Snider not to give homework.
Persuasive:
5. Angry and colorful are both describing words.
Describing:

Directions: Identify the noun in the sentence below and determine whether its singular or plural.

6. The cats on that street always make a lot of noise at night.

Name: _____

Is the Iditarod Humane? Classwork

Part I. Directions: As you watch the video answer the questions below.

1. What type of climate does the Iditarod take place in?
2. What is a muster?
3. How long does the race take?

Directions: Fill in the chart as we read the informational text.

Describing words in the article	Positive	Negative

